Participating Museum Details

Eastern Cabarrus Historical Society Museum

See the story of life in eastern Cabarrus County from the 18th to the 20th centuries in more than two dozen themed rooms, and a new pottery display. A scavenger hunt for children is available.

Matthews Heritage Museum

Step back in time as you enter the award-winning Matthews Heritage Museum, housed in the 1879 Massey-Clark House, one of the oldest structures in historic downtown Matthews. Discover 150 years of local history in three galleries and explore our rotating exhibits.

Badin Historic Museum

The museum complex features three buildings: the 1916 Rent Office Building, the Firehouse Museum, and a refurbished 1913 French built apartment. Learn the history of “Badin: the Town Aluminum Built.”

Price of Freedom Museum

The Price of Freedom Museum began in a Texaco station on the 20th anniversary of the end of WWII. From there the collection of military memorabilia moved to a former school and now to a dedicated building that also houses a collection of military vehicles.

Hugh Torance House & Store

Visit the circa 1779 Hugh Torance House & Store, a unique and extravagant Federal-style home with original architectural features. Experience a guided living history tour by our historians, exploring the oldest standing store in North Carolina, operated from 1805 to 1825 by James Torrance. The house is furnished with period pieces, and the store displays items from 1825. Support restoration by shopping for local goods and gifts. Open for self-guided tours and shopping every Sunday from 1–4pm, with guided tours at 2pm. Check our website for special events, tour reservations, and private group tours.

Stanly County History Center

Located in downtown Albemarle, the Stanly County History Center includes interactive rotating exhibits, weekly children's programs, and a genealogical research room.

President James K. Polk State Historic Site

The President James K. Polk State Historic Site is home to the birthplace of the 11th President and the only Chief-of-State born in Mecklenburg County. Located just a few minutes outside of Charlotte, the site sits on 21 of the original 150 acres owned by President Polk's father, Samuel.

Mint Hill Historical Society Carl J McEwen Historic Village

We invite you to visit the Carl J McEwen Historic Village and experience the simple but hardworking life in rural America about 100 years ago. Interactive QR codes posted outside tell the history of each historic building.

Oakboro Museum of History

A glimpse into the past as well as an explanation of how the town of Oakboro came to be.

Oakboro Railroad Museum

A replica of the original Oakboro depot that houses items from the original railroad as well as items of universal use in the era.

Historic Rosedale

With a beautifully restored 1815 historic building and 9 acres of land which was once a plantation, guests are invited to learn about generations of families, both free and enslaved, who lived and labored at Historic Rosedale. Join us for guided house tours and/or stroll the grounds for a self-guided garden tour.

Mount Holly Historical Society

Nestled in the heart of historic downtown Mount Holly, discover the rich heritage of our city at the Mount Holly Historical Society Museum. Learn about our town's founders and veterans. Explore the schools, churches, and mills that contributed to the vibrant community we have today.

Kings Mountain Historical Museum

Kings Mountain Historical Museum is housed in our town's historic 1940 WPA Post office, and features two changing exhibits a year on local and regional history, an annual Christmas trains exhibit, and various living history programs like our annual WW2 Day and Spirit of Christmas Past Day. KMHM is also the home of two local historic houses – the early 19th century Barber cabin and the late 19th century Cornwell house, open select times of the year.
