Haunted History Event at Historic Rosedale

Historic Rosedale is pleased to once again offer “Haunted History: A Look at the Victorian Funeral.” This event will be held on Friday, October 17, 2025, at 7pm. Visitors are invited to this specially themed tour of both the 200+ year old house and grounds!

The event will explore the traditions and elements of the Victorian funeral. Rosedale resident Dr. David Caldwell (1799-1861) died the same year as Prince Albert, husband of Queen Victoria, the very Queen for whom the Victorian age is named, and whose mourning of her husband influenced funeral traditions of the time. Along with members of the Charlotte Area Paranormal Society (CAPS), the Historic Rosedale staff will discuss many of these funeral traditions -some macabre, some sentimental – and lead you through our 1815 home as it would have looked during a mourning period, as well as sharing stories of the ghostly residents who remain from this moment in time. The tour will be held both inside the house and outside in the gardens and grounds surrounding our historic home and reconstructed blacksmith shop.

Executive Director, Deanna Witte-Walker states, “Here at Rosedale, we love to add the historic element to entertaining events.” She continues, “It’s a great way to learn about the past while having fun.”

Historic Rosedale is located at 3427 N. Tryon St, Charlotte. Parking is free. Advance purchase of tickets is suggested. www.historicrosedale.org. Spaces for this tour are limited for a cozy story-telling experience.
