Drinks Through the Decades - A toast to timeless flavors from the past to the present!

Saturday, November 8, 8:00-10:00pm

3427 N. Tryon St., Charlotte, NC 28206

Guests won't want to miss this immersive tasting event that celebrates the evolution of iconic drinks from centuries gone by. From colonial punches to Prohibition-era cocktails, participants will savor authentic recipes while learning the history and process behind each one. History buffs and cocktail connoisseurs alike will enjoy this spirited journey which offers a flavorful blend of culture, craft, and conversation!

"Drinks Through the Decades" takes place on Saturday, November 8, 2025, from 8-10pm at Historic Rosedale, 3427 N. Tryon St., Charlotte, NC. Tickets are $20 each and include tastings with each of the featured vendors, from wineries to breweries to distilleries. Guests can also enjoy a glass of syllabub, a favorite drink of the 16th-19th centuries, courtesy of Historic Rosedale, and can purchase additional beverages from each vendor if they choose.

Executive director, Deanna Witte-Walker states, "We are excited to offer this special event that celebrates history in a unique way. It promises to be a fun night out!" She continues, "We are grateful to the local vendors for joining us in this new initiative and for supporting Historic Rosedale."

Tickets may be purchased from Historic Rosedale's website www.historicrosedale.org. Spaces are limited so advanced purchase is suggested. Parking is free, and the event will take place in Historic Rosedale's large, covered pavilion.
