Family Fun Day at Historic Rosedale

Families are often looking for unique, memorable, multi-generational experiences. Historic Rosedale's Family Fun Day promises to be just that. The event takes place on Saturday, September 27, 2025, from 11am-2pm at 3427 N. Tryon St, Charlotte.

Participants of all ages are invited to explore museum and garden related crafts (think nature collage, children's quilting, rain sticks, bean sprout planting), games (like cornhole, hopscotch, jump rope) and fun encounters (story telling, nature scavenger hunt, costume fun, and more.) Pizza will be provided courtesy of Brixx Pizza: Birkdale. Other light refreshments are included in the admission.

While the goal is to have families sprawled throughout the nine-acre property, Historic Rosedale is also equipped with a large covered pavilion with plenty of space for families to enjoy the activities. The event takes place rain or shine.

Admission to the event is $10 per child and $5 per accompanying adult. Tickets may be purchased in advance at www.historicrosedale.org. There are some opportunities for financial assistance by emailing office@historicrosedale.org or calling 704-335-0325. Guided house tours are a separate charge and will be offered at 11:30am and 1pm. There is plentiful free parking.

Wrap up the summer with laughter, learning, and lasting memories.
